Mother of God, Gromnica Feast

February 2, 2024

All Saints Parish will offer a special Mass at 6:30PM on Friday February 2nd in honor of the Presentation of the Lord, or Candlemas Day. The Mass is said mostly by candlelight, most lights will be off. In Polish tradition, the day is associated with a special candle known as a "Gromnica", a large often decorated candle made of beeswax. This special candle is lit only for the most important moments in a person's life. Each year the candle is typically brought to church on Candlemas Day in order to be blessed. If you are interested in purchasing a homemade Gromnica for yourself or a loved one, please contact the Boswell parish office 814.629.5551. There is a limited amount and only 1 candle per family.
